SECTION-C

10. The COVID-19 pandemic has given a big jolt to economy and posed serious challenges before it. Not only banking is suffering but all institutions across financial sector are suffering. Reserve bank of India has reduced repo rate and suggested banks to delay EMIs of borrowers. It could be one of the most serious challenges faced by the financial services industry in nearly a century. The COVID-19 impact on banking will be severe - fall in demand, lower incomes, production shutdowns - and will adversely affect the business of banks. The situation is accompanied by staff shortages, inadequate digital maturity, and pressure on the existing infrastructure as firms scramble to deal with the impact of COVID-19 on financial services.

In the light of current scenario, you are advised to devise a strategy for financial services and banks to device strategies. Also give your insights solutions to identify and prepare for new risks
